CSTCC TELLS JUSTICE PLAN

School Consortium To Teach Policing

Chattanooga State Technical Community College has announced the formation of the Southeastern Tennessee Consortium in Criminal Justice Higher Education with members including Chattanooga State, Cleveland State Community College and the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga.

The Consortium will offer courses leading to the associate of science degree in criminal justice beginning with the fall quarter of 1974.

The program is designed to prepare the student to serve as policeman, sheriff's patrolman, detective, security guard, corrections officer, or to work in other criminal justice careers.

It may also lead to the Bachelor of Science degree in criminal justice at UTC.

The professional courses in the lower division will be taught on the Chattanooga State campus by Cleveland State faculty. All other courses will be taught by Chattanooga State faculty.

Students wishing to enter this program should contact Van Compton at 698-8681, extension 21.
