

Welcome to YOUR Library! <http://library.chattanoogastate.edu>

1. Google products

2. Google's "20% time"=

3. Searches:

	Column 1	Column 2 (add one of the keywords listed in the checked bullet below table)
a.	Attenuation		Find a video	Find .pdf file
b.	Software driver	Asus motherboard 8AN-SLI
c.	Resolution	Pata Hard Drive
d.	Sampling rate	Sata Hard Drive
e.	.WAV file	Transfer Corona
f.	.MP3 file	ATX12v 2.0
g.	Firewall	Netgear Wireless router

- Search for word in Column 1 using regular Google. Next, try different search:
  - Type "Define: (word in column 1)" without the quotation marks
- ✓ Try your typical search for product in Google, using one of the keywords below
  - Install, common problems, troubleshoot, compare cost, drivers, configuration
- Try the same search using Advanced Google. More relevant results?
  - Next, limit same search to youtube.com.
  - Take off limit to youtube.com and try same search using file type: pdf

4. Do you use any other search engines besides Google? List them.

5. Wikipedia

Interview printable version, discussion, history, cite

6. "Which words should I type in my search?"

- a. Circle and then list each keyword on a separate line. List synonyms to try in the search.
  - i. For example: What is the best way to dispose of old PC parts?
    1. Dispose OR discard OR recycle
    2. PC or computer or electronic
    3. As you skim information, you might come across specific keywords to use in your search. For example: Add e-waste to your search.
  - ii. How many sticks of RAM can this motherboard hold?
    1. _____
    2. _____
  - iii. What size power supply do I need?
    1. _____
    2. _____